

The proclaimed Word of God...

Demands yielding to the Word of God.

Exposes sin and rebellion towards God.

Always accomplishes God's purposes.

Provides the road to receive God's mercy or judgment.

Questions for Discussion:

While God is patient and longsuffering such that He gave Jonah a second chance, are there ways we can misrepresent God's character and distort this teaching?

How have you rebelled against God's will for you in the past?
How could God use your story to minister to others?

How can Jonah's example of obedience and Nineveh's example of repentance encourage us amidst the decline of our culture in America?

What is God asking you to do as a result of hearing this message?
