

Your knowledge of an issue remains incomplete when not coupled with a love for God and a love for others. (1-3)

Your life was created by the one and only true God for the purpose of glorifying Him. (4-6)

You have the freedom to honor the Lord by helping other believers grow in Christ. (7-13)

Questions for Discussion:

What are some of the debatable matters among Christians today?

How would you define a “legalist?” A “libertarian?”

How does arrogance resulting from knowledge relate to the matter at hand?

What is the specific “knowledge” Paul is outlining here regarding this issue?

How would love be the antidote to such arrogance?

What are some ways that someone exercising their liberty today cause someone else to “stumble?”

Who are the people in your life that by you exercising your liberty could be caused to stumble?