

When you do things God's way, you will experience...

God's favor in the most unexpected situations. (1-7)

Unlikely people testifying about the reality of God. (8-14)

Confidence that God's ways will triumph. (15-24)

Questions for Discussion:

Have you ever found yourself in an "unfavorable situation" like the spies did?

How did you experience God's favor?

Who are some of the most "unlikely people" to come to Christ you know?

Have they come to faith in Christ? If so, how?

If they haven't yet come to faith in Christ, are you still praying for them?

Take time during your meeting to pray for them.

How confident are you that God's ways will triumph?

Have you "gone public" concerning your relationship with Christ?

What evidence is there of your public testimony?

How can Rahab's testimony be of encouragement to you personally?
