

In your walk with Jesus Christ...

Be Advised!

There will always be enemies who will fight the work of God in your life. (1-2)

Be Aware!

The enemy is crafty in his ways to get you to compromise. (3-13)

Be Prayerful!

You are ripe for compromise when you don't seek the Lord. (14-15)

Be Faithful!

When you make a vow, keep it! (16-27)

Questions for Discussion:

Why do you think some believers deny the work of Satan and demons in their lives?

What are some ways Satan attacks believers?

Why do you think some believers blame God for such attacks?

Why can Satan's deceptions (compared to his other strategies) be the most difficult attacks to thwart?

What are some steps we must take to thwart Satan's deceptive strategies?

What does it take for believers to keep their vows?

Are there ways Satan is attacking you this week? If so, how is he working?

What will it look like for you to resist him?
