

Your failure is not the end because...

God is always merciful when we deal with our sin. (1-2)

God is creative and fresh in His methods to receive glory. (3-23)

God is able to accomplish what we cannot complete on our own. (24-29)

God still desires for us to worship Him and honor His Word. (30-35)

Questions for Discussion:

Pastor Jeff cited three ways the devil works his lies against us:

- "God is mad at you"
- "You can do this by yourself"
- "You blew it, so you've missed God's best for you"

Are you believing any of these lies?

If so, which ones?

How has believing any of these lies affected your daily life?

Choose to renounce that lie today.

Is there something you wish you could have a second chance at?

If so, what is it?

What would it look like for you to take another shot at it this week?

Is there something you are facing that is humanly impossible to overcome?

If so, what is it?

What would it look like for you to step out in faith this week?

Is there something you have seen happen that was unmistakably God at work on your behalf?

If so, what was it?

Did you stop to intentionally give Him thanks for it?

If not, set aside time this week to pause and worship Him for it.
