

We love without condition because...

Loving one another is priority 1 for a follower of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ modeled loving without condition.

Nothing has more lasting, motivating power than love in action.

Loving one another is the emblem of our faith.

Questions for Discussion:

What can cause one's love for another person to drop from being the number 1 priority?

Can you recall a specific time when your love for someone was tested?

What was the result?

Is there someone in your life right now you would have a tough time loving?

If so, what about that person would make it difficult?

Are you willing to step up and love that person anyway?

What would it look like to love that person this week?

Pastor Jeff mentioned five ways to express your love for another:

- Listen to them
- Affirm them
- Empower them
- Prioritize them
- Sacrifice for them

Which of these do you think is the most difficult for most people?

Which would you say is the most challenging for you personally?

What are some ways people enable others in their sin?

How would you show love to someone without enabling them?
